

Coatings and Adhesives Corporation(C&A) Promotes Matt Barlow to the position of Chicagoland Sales Representative

Matt Barlow has worked with C&A since 2010 as a Print Technical Specialist and is now assuming the position of Sales Representative for the Chicagoland area. We at C&A are looking forward to providing Matt's industry knowledge, organizational skills, customer dedication and product support abilities to our Chicagoland Customers.

Prior to C&A, Matt was employed by the offset press manufacturer Heidelberg as a Lead Press Demonstrator/Print Instructor. While he is just beginning this sales endeavor, we believe that his strong technical background gives him a unique skill set to assist our Customers and provide an additional resource by availing our products with strong technical application, training and problem-solving experience.

About Coatings & Adhesives Corporation

C&A is the largest waterbased coating manufacturer in North America along with the production of UV/EB coatings and waterbased adhesives. We are the only vertically integrated coating supplier capable of producing our own polymer raw materials to enhance product economics, quality, and ensure an uninterrupted supply source. We pride ourselves on being customer-focused to offer customized product solutions to meet specific applications or customer requirements. Our products are available to meet a wide-range of applications:

- Product offerings include Waterbased, UV/LED/HUV, EB coatings and Waterbased Adhesives
- Product applications include Commercial, Packaging, Label along with specialty coating applications
- Equipment applications for our products include Offset, Flexo, Gravure, Screen and can be formulated for compatibility with specialized application processes

Additionally, you can visit our website at www.cacoatings.com as a resource for company and product information as well as technical documents related to coating and adhesive applications.

Contact Information

Matt is available and would like the opportunity to become acquainted with you and your company to determine if there are any projects, solutions or needs that C&A can help support. If there is an opportunity to sit-down and discuss our businesses in the coming weeks, please let Matt know and he would be happy to coordinate a visit.
